Dearest Louise,

I love to pass a grade with flying colors, but it is a strong tendency to fail this course just to be with you next year.

Thanks a lot for doing my hair because then and there I found a new friend worth keeping.

You have such a wonderful personality I am sure that you will never be in need or lacking a friend, but if you ever do come home.

I would like to correspond with you this summer and if you ever find time drop a line to - H.P. - 1100 Tyler St.

Just as the 1946 cars that are coming off the lines differ from the 1942 models, very few really "new" planes will come off the production lines until next spring. But, even so, two new developments promise to make 1947's models the family car of the air. Private planes take skill to fly safely and ordinary conversions cannot be held because sound-proofing will shut out all noise yet.
